

Contents

1. Introduction
2. Ice in Fisheries
3. Different types of Ice Plants (Ice) and preferability
4. Existing Ice production situation
  - a. District wise distribution of Ice Plants
  - b. Situation of the Rated Capacity
  - c. Ownership of Ice Plants
  - d. Availability of water
  - e. Energy supply
  - f. Technical knowhow and labour
  - g. Construction and maintenance of Ice Plants
  - h. Capital investment
  - i. Economics of Ice Production
5. Ice Requirements
  - a. Usage in Multi-day Boat fishing
  - b. Ice needs in landing places for preservation
  - c. Ice needs during fish transport & distribution
  - d. Ice needs in consumer centres & retail sale
  - e. To preserve Shrimps before processing for export
  - f. Preservation of Fresh water fish
6. Predicted requirement of Ice in the year 2000 and year 2005
7. Facilities for new ice plants
8. Improving ice usage
9. Problems and observations
10. Recommendations

Annex :

1. List of all the Ice Plants in the country
2. List of CFHC & CFC Ice Plants
3. Forms to furnish Ice production information annually by the owners to the Department of Fisheries
4. Ceylon Fisheries Corporation - Income and expenditure ( 1986 - 1989 )

Map :

1. Map showing the ice plants
2. Ice plants in the northern and eastern provinces
3. Additional ice plants requirement in the year 2000