

Table of Contents

Abstract

Acronyms

Acknowledgements

Table of Contents List of Figures

1. Introduction	1-7
1.1. Significant of the study
1.2 Research question
1.3 Objective of the study
1.4 Organization of the thesis
1.5 Limitation of the study
2. Part 1: The International and Sri Lankan Fisheries management Initiatives	8-42
Chapter 1: International binding and non-binding fisheries management Initiatives
Section A: Literature Review
Paragraph 1: Local and Other Studies
Paragraph 2: Methodology of the Study
Section B: International Fisheries Management Initiatives
Paragraph 1: Legally binding instruments
Paragraph 2: Non-binding instruments and related conventions
Chapter 2: Regional and Sri Lankan fisheries management
Section A: Indian Ocean fisheries management and fisheries Ordinance of Sri Lanka
Paragraph 1: RFMOs in Indian Ocean
Paragraph 2: Fisheries legal instruments before 1940
Section B: Fisheries legal instruments in the present
Paragraph 1: Fisheries and Aquatic Resources Act 1996 and regulations
Paragraph 2: Other Ordinances / Acts related to the fisheries
3. Part 2: Sri Lankan Fishery industry and Fishers prospects	43-81
Chapter 1: Overview of Sri Lankan Fishery Industry
Section A: Fisheries Administration and current situation
Paragraph 1: Fisheries Ministry and allied Institutions
Paragraph 2: Trend of fish production and other infrastructure
Section B: Issues of the Fisheries
Paragraph 1: Domestic Issues of fisheries
Paragraph 2: Poaching by Indian Fisherman
Chapter 2: Compliance issues and Fishers prospects on fisheries law in the country
Section A: Violation of fisheries acts & socio-economic status of sampled fishers
Paragraph 1: Recorded violent activities by the department and NAVY
Paragraph 2: Social status and factors influence for the fishers Income
Section B: Fishers perception on fisheries law
Paragraph 1: Fishers` understanding about fisheries law
Paragraph 2: Fishers` ideas to improve compliance on fisheries law
4. Summary	82-87
4.1 Conclusion and Recommendations	